Toms River, NJ -- Educators and administrators will exchange and expand their knowledge at TeachMeetNJ, an educational unconference, held at Toms River Intermediate South on Saturday, March 10th, 2018.

TeachMeet Pre-Service was created by the team behind TeachMeetNJ, another successful New Jersey unconference. TeachMeetNJ, now in its sixth year, has hosted many successful events for thousands of tri-state area educators each year since 2012. This new event is dedicated solely to preparing future educators.

TeachMeet Pre-Service is free and intended for pre-service and first year teachers. The focus of the day will help prepare future educators for their imminent careers. Topics will range from technology products to working closely with parents to have a successful classroom. "Unconference" is a term to describe conferences that are more participant-driven and informal than traditional conferences.

Fast-paced 30-minute sessions will be presented by area educators. Registration and breakfast begin at 7:30 a.m. with opening remarks at 8:00. Sessions will begin at 8:30 a.m. Attendees will be given a certificate for professional development upon completion of the day, which ends at 12:30 p.m.

Attendees who would like to share their experiences and knowledge with future educators can sign up to be a presenter at www.teachmeetnj.com.
